Delhi govt may table CAG report as assembly session begins today

DELHI The Union Territory government may table the Comptroller and Auditor General's (CAG) report on the Delhi Budget for 2020-21 as the assembly session begins today.

The report, which was submitted to the government on December 15, contains a detailed analysis of the budget and its implications. It also highlights the government's performance in various sectors and provides recommendations for improvement. The government is expected to table the report in the assembly on Friday.

The report is expected to be a landmark document as it will be the first time that the CAG has audited the Delhi Budget. It is also expected to provide a comprehensive overview of the state of the Union Territory's finances and its future prospects.

THE TWO-DAY SESSION WILL ALSO CONCLUDE ON DECEMBER 18, AND THE SESSIONS MAY BE EXTENDED IF THE HOUSE DECIDES, ASSEMBLY OFFICIALS SAID

House will start when the session begins on Friday. The session will conclude on December 18, and the sessions may be extended if the house decides, assembly officials said. The session will be held in the presence of the Chief Minister and other ministers. The session will be a two-day session, and the government is expected to table the CAG report on Friday.

Fund, staff crunch hamper health care at Faridkot medical college

FARIDKOT The Union Territory government has allocated a budget of around ₹100 crore for the Faridkot Medical College and Hospital for the year 2020-21. However, the college is facing a severe fund and staff crunch, which is hampering health care services.

The college is facing a severe fund and staff crunch, which is hampering health care services. The government has allocated a budget of around ₹100 crore for the college, but the funds are not being released in a timely manner. This has led to a shortage of staff and equipment, which is affecting the quality of care provided to patients.
